A slight change for the better came over the internal administration of Spain, upon the occasion of Castellar to the Presidency. He has displayed firmness and moderation in the face of some of the most trying difficulties which ever beset a ruler. He has had to put a curb on ecclesiastical usurpation and bigotry, and to combat the ultra sentiments of the commune, With the most complicated and threatening foreign relations, he has so far manage to keep his country at peace with the world.

But the insolence and stupidity of the Spaniards have well nigh defeated the efforts of the President, both as regards his internal and external policy; and have finally culminated in an attack on the Minister of one of the few nations friendly to Spain. It does seem that people, neglecting her history for three hundred years, look back to the departed glories of Charles V. and Ferdinand, and still feel their ability to cope with a powerful nation. She forgets that the victories gained on Spanish soil during the past hundred years were by her allies, and by foreign leaders. Even Italy, which in her days of greatness Spain governed with a rod of iron, is now more than a match for her.

The Iberian peninsular seems to be and Representatives in Congress. drifting into the condition of Algiers, when the United States were forced to chastise those insolent barbarians. The atrocious murders must be the subject of rigid investigation by our government, and satisfaction, ample and complete satisfaction, made for such brutality.

More SENSATION .- Of the treacherous Dons, rumors are rife on our streets to-day. Many are in circulation, but do not differ materially from the following: A pilot who arrived here this morning from Smithville states that there are three men-of-war flying the colors of Spain lying off the main bar to blockade it, and that there were private telegrants received last night by the different Vice-Consuls not to ship any more spirits for the present and to keep all vessels, flying the colors of the nations they represent, in port until further orders, and that another private (strictly private) telegram stated that twenty-three Spanish men-of-war have been ordered to blockade the various seaports from Baltimore to Galveston. We have tracked these reports here yesterday, or up to the time of our going to press to-day The government steamer Eaton left Smithville at three o'clock this morning, and from her men we could glean nothing relative to the tural parts, he remarked that he was Dons. We are at a loss to see what consurprised to see that there were only nection the vessels in our port, flying two places in town where carpeting was the colors of the various nationalities kept and that he had seen nothing that can have to the anticipated war, and, suited him, and was rather loth to re- of course, there was no truth in regard to turn home without a carpet as his wife the private. yes, steictly private, telegrams was anxious to have a new one. Petition of Mrs. O. L. Filyaw for a reduction of taxes on her wharf property north of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad was allowed, the amount paid on the distillery to be deducted from the tax.

The Finance Committee, in the matter of a petition for the exemption from taxation of certain property used for school purposes, was allowed further time for the purpose of submitting the matter for the opinion of the City Attorney.

The Finance Committee reported that they had instructed the Tax Collector to advertise and sell, after December 1st, property on which the taxes remain unpaid.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY OF WILMINGTON,

Gentlemen : -- Impressed with the belief that the control of the poor of the city of Wilmington, and the duty of providing for them in all cases, was exclusively imposed by law on "the Commissioners of the county of New Hanover," and that the large disbursements made by the city during the last four or five years for this unfortunate class of our fellow-citizens, were unauthorized by law, I requested the Attorney for the city to give me his legal opinion on this subject. I submit herewith his answer, from which you will perceive that he is of the opinion, that you have no right, no power, to make appropriations of the funds of the city to purposes of this character, it matters not how charitable or benevolent you may consider them. If the Board of Aldermen have no legal right or power to make these large expenditures for charities of this character, should they not be promptly discontinued, and that body, which alone has the power, and upon which the law has exclusively imposed the obligation of providing for the confort and well-ordering of the poor, be required to discharge this sacred duty? Though I have great respect for the legal opinions of the Attorney back as far as possible, and have been unable to hear of a pilot who arrived here yesterday, or up to the time of our him now before me, I am unable to perceive how the right or power to esablish, or maintain a hospital for the city can be derived from the power to make laws for the preservation of the health of the city. The duty of preventing sickness or disease among the inhabitants of the city, is a very differ-ent obligation from that of providing surgical, medical or other aid to such as are too poor to provide for themselves. The first applies to the city at large and you are required to attend to it. The latter applies alone to the poor, and the law casts this duty with the other duhung our head in shame for those mer- There are three things yet to be found ties in reference to this class on the Commissioners of the county. In consideration of the matter herein referred to, I would respectfully recommend to the Board the passage of the ordinances and resolutions here

In reply I have to say, that however grateful it would be to the feelings of members of the Board of Aldermen to contribute from Board of Aldermen to contribute from the City Treasury to the relief of the poor and afflicted, and that however laudable such assertions impulses may be, the question of poorer or the right of the Board to thus dispose of the money raised by taxtion upon the property, trades, and professions of the citizens, is quite a different thing. The City of Wilmington is a municipal law under which they (municipal corporations) exercise their powers, is their constitution, in which they must teers, the perpetration of the most tershow authority for the acts they assume to perform. They have no inherent jurisdiction to make laws or adopt regulations of government; they are governments of enumerated powers, acting by a delegated authority."—

That such is the law relating to the city government cannot be questioned by any lawyer. You must then look to your charter, or some act of the

The power is certainly not conferred by the 8th section of the City Charter, under the power to pass secure order, health and quiet in the city." I have been unable to find any it can be inferred from the 6th section of the Act of the 18th of December, 1868, being an act to amend the Charter of the City of Wilmington. That act directs that the poor tax levied upon the citizens and property of citizens of the City of Wilmington shall be paid to the Treasurer of the city, by the Sheriff of the county; provide for the poor of the county. The city of Wilmirgton is within the county limits and the residents of the city subject to the payment of county taxes as are citizens residing beyond its limits within the county. Then we have the case of express power conferred upon the County Commissioners and not even an inferential power given to the Board of Aldermen to provide for the poor of the city.

for the Legislature to determine the mode, and not the Board of Aldermen. You will readily perceive how dangerous such a power as is claimed would be; the Board are to be the sole judges, both of the objects of your the disbursements made by the city for the poor of the city, including payments to the Hospital during the time referred to, have annually averaged $10,633.43, and for the whole four years amount to the sum of $42,533.74.

The disbursements made by the disbursements made by the Board. I would recommend that by an ordinance of the Board you direct any money that may be paid on account of the peor tax under the act of 1868-69, to the City Treasurer, be with every kind of ammunition.

The telegraph has been vigorously used, urging forward every preparation to the support of the support o poor according to law.

Respectfully,

The maintenance of the poor of the city as a class of persons, differs widely from the establishment and maintepance of a city hospital for the temporary relief of such poor persons as may require surgical or medical treatment. Under that clause of the city charter which empowers the city to make laws for the preservation of the health of the city, and under what is termed in the books as "the general welfare clause," I am of opinion that it would be competent for the Board of Aldermen to commerce of Wilmington, in the Union, without some such charitable institution, and it would not reflect much credit upon our city to form the patched to assist the missing boats. exception.

It is manifest that there is a marked listinction between the maintenance of a hospital for the temporary relief of the indigent sick, or disabled, and a constant periodical bestowal of the people's money upon charitable insti-tutions of a private character, and controlled by others than the city authorities. Respectfully,
